Early to-night the river here reached 47.6, and while still rising, the rate is slow. It is expected to crest short of forty-eight feet Thursday or Friday. A stiff wind to-day and to-night threatens damage to flooded buildings and to boats tied at the local levee. A half-dozen steamers with fires up are resting with their bows at the outer edge of Water Street.

Eack water invaded the Linwood Avenue section of the city to-day, but outside of flooding basements and filling the street with water from curb to curb, has done little damage.

Move Back Into Houses.

[By Associated Press.]

Cincinnati, April 2.—The receding waters of the Ohio reached a stage of 69.1 feet here at 6 o'clock to-night, and those persons in the flooded zone took on renewed energy and mado preparations to move back into their watersoaked residences and business houses. It is believed street car traffic with Kentucky cities will be resumed within the next twenty-four hours. The river is falling at the rate of one-tenth of a foot every twenty-four hours.

Improved at All Points.
[By Associated Press.]

Parkersburg, W. Va., April 2—The flood situation is much clarified here to-night. With flood water of the Ohio River back in its banks, rapid progress is being made in cleaning up the portion of the town that was inundated. Sufferers of the high water are being sheltered and fed without serious inconveniences.

Captain W. A. Mitchell, of the United States Army, took a boatload of supplied from here late to-day to Marietta, Ohio. Another boat, filled with necessities, left for Belleville, Rayenswood and other downships for the supplied of the sup wood and other down-river towns. Conditions, it is reported, are improving

HINDERS RATHER THAN HELP

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, April 2.—Nearly all of to-day's hearings before the arbitration in the rallway firemen's wage controversy was given up to a discussion of the efficiency of the automatic stoker on engines. Most of the witnesses agreed that it hindered rather than helped the firemen, and W. S. Carter, president of the Firemen's Brotherhood, intimated that the expenditure for the stoker would meet the additional expense of an extra fireman on an engine.

DANIELS PRAISES

With Other Cabinet Officers, Annual Convention of Fourth New Secretary Witnesses Target Practice.

Old Point, Va., April 2.—Secretary Daniels, of the Navy Department, and four other members of President Wilson's Cablust, stood on the bridge of the Dreadmought Wyoming to-day while her battery of twolve twelve-inch guns roared for the first time at battle practice in salvo. At the first salvo half the targets, more than four miles away, was torn to bits, and before she had fired the ninety-six shots allowed her there were a dozen holes in the portion left standing.

mere a do-cen holes in the portion left standing.

Conditions for target practice were almost ideal. On the Southern drill grounds the sea was amooth, the sities were clear, and there was just enough breeze to clear away the smoke from the guns in quick time.

Secretaries Daniels, McAdoo, Lane and Houston and Postmaster-General Burleson, equipped with poverful glasses, watched the shots eagerly. Miss Eleanor Wilson, the President's daughter, and the wives of several members of the Cabinet, were on the battleship Idalio.

To-night Secretary Daniels returned to the grounds of the Wyoming to witness the night firing from the four twelvo-inch guns of the Minnesota at a towed target never before tried in the American navy. The rest of his party loft on the Mayflower for Washington late to-day.

Mr. Daniels said of the practice:

"The principal things that impressed mewer the smart appearance of the ships and the officers and men, the enthusiastic interest they displayed in the battle practice, and the close community of interest between officers and men, a relationship which, should this country unfortunately ever be engaged in war, will be the deciding factors in bringing success to the American forces. The whole operation showed to me a very high state of efficiency, and I attribute this to team work that prevails from the admiral to the newest recruit."

BANK DECLARED SOLVENT

State Examiner Says It is in Excellent Finnacial Condition.

Atlanta, Ga., April 2.—State Bank Examiner W. J. Speer, who yesterday took charge of the City Savings Bank, of Atlanta, upon the request of the institution's officials, to-day declared that the bank is solvent and in excellent financial condition.

The affairs of the bank were turned over to the State Treasury after a small run on the institution Monday.

In a statement made public to-day the State Bank Examiner announces that the assets of the institution are $97,340, with liabilities amounting to $57,421.

FIGHT ON NEGROES

Record.

Washington. April 2.—Senator James R. Vardaman. of Mississippl, to-day said it was his intention after the tariff was out of the road to press upon Congress a proposed repeal of the Fifteenth amendment to the Constitution and a modification of the Fourteenth amendment.

The Fifteenth amendment gives the negro the right to vote. It declares that the right of citizens to vote "shall not be denied or abrid-ed by the United States or by any State on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude." The Fourteenth amendment also deals with the elective franchise and the question of the basis of representation in Congress.

Senator Vardaman is an enthusiast on the subject of the "white man's government." In line with his policy he said he would introduce a "Jim Crow" car bill, which would provide for separate cars for colored people in the District of Columbia, and on all trains engaged in interstate commerce. He also will urge further legislation looking to the complete separation of the negro from the while in school houses, and all other places where white and blacks come together.

Gibraitar, April 2.—One hundred and twenty-four of the passengers and crew of the steamship Agadir, which went ashore off here early this morning in a gale, are still on board, and much doubt is expressed over the possibility of their rescue. A heavy sea is breaking over the vessel, preventing all attempt at rescue by lifeboats, and late this evening the captain of Agadir signaled that the ship was pounding on the rocks and had already shown signs of breaking up. Forty of the passengers were rescued by the French cruiser Friant by means of a life line shot to the Agadir from the deck of the cruiser, but the increasing gale has rendered this method extremely hazardous.

No Open Break With Physicians of U.S. Health and Marine Hospital Service. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

New York, April 2 .- Friends of Dr. Friedrich Franz Friedmann, of Berlin, to-night denied the report that he was angered by treatment accorded him by government physicians and was making preparation to return to Germany.

Dr. Arthur Friedmann gave out a brief statement in which he declared that his brother had been slightly put out on finding that out of the seventy cases which had been prepared for his tubercular serum at the Seton Hos-pital by Drs. Stimpson and Lavider, of the Public Health Service, more than forty of them were cases for whom neither the serum nor anything else could hold the slightest hope.
